Cover Letter:

I am writing to submit my oil painting "Reaching for the Faint Light" for consideration for the upcoming exhibition "The ART of KINDNESS." I was thrilled to discover this opportunity and feel that my piece aligns perfectly with the theme of the exhibition.

The painting depicts a person lying in the water sinking and trying to reach for a faint light, capturing the essence of what it means to reach out for help during difficult times. Kindness is a crucial aspect of mental health and I believe that my work conveys this important message in a powerful and emotive manner.

I would be honored to have the opportunity to contribute to the "The ART of KINDNESS" exhibition and am confident that my piece will resonate with the viewers. Please let me know if you require any further information or materials from me.

Artist Statement:

As a Bachelor of Fine Arts graduate, I have always been fascinated by the intersection of light, color, and emotions. My artworks aim to explore the depths of human emotions and experiences, emphasizing the importance of kindness and empathy in a world where mental health struggles are becoming increasingly prevalent.
